Dear Reader,

With this issue THE COMPETITION MASTER completes 46 years of publication. Over the years, we have stuck to our basic philosophy of providing a magazine that is wholesome and that not only provides study material for various competitive exams, but also helps the reader to become a better individual, with a positive personality.

Completing 46 years of publication is a time to celebrate. The first issue of the 47th year of publication—August 2005 issue—will be a Special Anniversary Issue. This issue will contain a Special Supplement that will provide the entire information of last 12 issues in a condensed form. Book your copy today with your newsagent for special issues of CM are known to sell like hot cakes.

As we cross another milestone, I would like to take this opportunity to thank our readers, agents and contributors for their continued support. I would also like to once again invite readers to send their views, comments and suggestions to further improve the magazine.

With best wishes,
